ARTIST STUDIO VISIT & APERITIF WITH JILL STEENHUIS

Take a few steps off the beaten path, and journey just outside of Aix-en-Provence for a relaxing apéritif with wine and refreshments, and an intimate encounter with local artist Jill Steenhuis.

During your visit, Jill and her family welcome you into their 200 year old bastide-style country home and art studio. You will get a glimpse into Jill's life as an artist, learn about her journey from America to France and gain insights into her creative process.

You will see her most recent works, including oil paintings, watercolors and lithographs, as well as her permanent family collection.

You may also visit the welding studio and foundry of her sculptor husband and sons, and observe their metal sculptures placed throughout the gardens and inside their home.

100€ for two persons, transportation included
